

The Season Nearly Over, Society Is Leaving for European Resorts

Continued from First Page.

set, Tennis and Racquet and Automobile clubs of Boston. The wedding will take place probably early in June.

The engagement has been announced of Mrs. Graham E. Babcock to William H. Downey, son of D. W. Downey of Canada. Mrs. Babcock is a sister of Mrs. Horbort Coppel of Birchknoll House, Tenafly, N. J. The wedding will take place on Wednesday at Cool Stream Farm, the home of Mrs. Babcock, in Tenafly, N. J., and will be celebrated quietly, only relatives and a few intimate friends being asked.

The wedding of Miss Rosetta S. Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward Ford of Morristown, N. Y., and Arkley King, son of Frederick Gore King of Garrison-on-Hudson, will take place at noon on Saturday at the home of the bride's parents and will be witnessed by relatives and a few intimate friends.

Mrs. Harry K. Knapp, Jr., will be the matron of honor, and Miss Emily Ford, sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor. The other attendants will be the Misses Isabel Hoyt, Frances Burr, Elizabeth Sloan Durfee of this city and Anne Nelson of Boston.

Archibald Grace King, brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man. The ushers chosen are Henry W. Ford, Jr., brother of the bride, Frederick Osborn, Charles de Rham, Jr., Henry M. Suckley, Clarence Crimmins and H. Collins Bell.

The bride's party will be the guests of Miss Ford on Friday night at a dinner and dance to be given at the home of her parents.

Among the important weddings next week will be that of Miss Virginia Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alexander Murray and Robert L. Bacon, son of ex-Ambassador and Mrs. Robert Bacon. It will be celebrated on Monday afternoon, April 14, in the Chapel of St. George's Church. The Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody, head of Groton School, Groton, Mass., will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Hugh Birchhead of Emmanuel Church, Baltimore, Md., formerly rector of St. George's Church. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 38 West Fifty-first street.

Miss Murray will have as her attendants Mrs. Ogden L. Mills, Miss Martha Bacon, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Edith Mortimer and Miss Josephine Osborn. Gaspar G. Bacon will be his brother's best man. Mr. Bacon returned from Europe only a week ago and the ushers have not yet been announced.

Arrangements have been completed for the wedding of Miss Lilla B. Gilbert, daughter of Mrs. H. Braumhall Gilbert, and Howard Price Bonshaw of Troy and this city, on April 15 at the home of her mother, 40 West Fifty-seventh street. The ceremony will take place at 5 o'clock and will be witnessed by relatives and a few intimate friends. The Rev. Dr. Kirkland Huske of Great Neck, L. I., will be the officiating clergyman. The bride will have her sisters, the Misses Florence and Elizabeth Gilbert, as her only attendants, and John Payne of Troy, N. Y., a cousin of the bridegroom, will be the best man. There will be no ushers.

Still another wedding of next week will be that of Miss Marian De Forest Cannon, a daughter by a former marriage, of Mrs. Theodore Frothingyusen, to John Dwyer Prince, Jr., in St. Thomas's Church on the afternoon of April 16. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stiles, rector of the church, assisted by the Rev. Endicott Peabody and the Rev. Edward Tibbitts, a cousin of the bride. There will be a reception afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Frothingyusen, 15 West Forty-seventh street.

Miss Adelaide Cannon, a sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids chosen are the Misses Helen D. Huntington, Mildred Rivers, Katharine Miller and Lois Cunningham. Henry Potter Russell, a grandson of the late Bishop Potter, will act as best man, and the ushers will include Le Grand B. Cannon, brother of the bride; Frederick T. Frothingyusen, stepbrother of the bride; William Jay Schofield, Jr., John Munroe, Charles H. Russell, Jr., Ives Gammell, Livingston Pene, Erskine Hewitt Phoenix Ingraham and Grafton W. Minot of Boston. Mr. Prince will give his farewell bachelor dinner on April 12.

The wedding of Miss Helen Bruff, daughter of William Jenkins Bruff, to Fritz George Achels will take place on April 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Achels, 9 East Fifty-seventh street. Owing to the recent death of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Richard P. Bruff, the ceremony will be celebrated quietly and there will be no reception. Mrs. Austin Jenkins Bruff, sister-in-law of the bride, will be her only attendant, and Brette Glanzer will be the best man.

In the Cathedral of St. John the Divine on April 22 will be celebrated the wedding of Miss Gertrude A. Horbort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Horbort. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 835 Fifth avenue.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Margaret Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes of 301 West Eighty-third street, to Charles D. Easton of Newport, in St. Thomas's Church on April 23 at 5 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stiles, rector of the church, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. John B. Piman, headmaster of St. George's School, Middletown, R. I.

The bride has chosen Miss Mildred Stewart as her maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Gladys Stout, Margaret Lowe, Margaret Faler and Gertrude Smith. Miss Grace Hayes, a cousin of the bride, will be the flower girl and Hayes Browning will act as page. Dr. Frank B. Easton of Laconia, N. H., will be his brother's best man and the ushers will be William McLeod, Mayor of Newport, Dr. Marshall Fabian of Harvard, Charles R. Easton of Providence, R. I., Ernest Howe of Newport and Thomas H. Baulch. There will be no reception. Miss Hayes is one of the survivors of the ill-fated Titanic and it was she who cared for the two French children, Michel and Edmund Naxos, until they were claimed by their mother. The father of the two boys was drowned.

A wedding of interest to society here and in Washington will be that of Miss Emme M. Couder, daughter of the late Frederic M. Couder and Mrs. Couder of this city, to Thomas Rogers, Jr., of Washington. It will be celebrated here on April 30 at the home of the bride's mother, 283 Park avenue, and will be witnessed by the immediate families and a few intimate friends. There will be no reception.

Miss Hyldagard Jurgensen
PHOTO BY DAVID AND SANCRO

Miss Couder has spent a good deal of her time in Washington, where her mother has a home, and she figured prominently in the social life of that city. The engagement was announced several weeks ago.

The wedding of Miss Gladys A. H. Poll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Poll, and H. Pendleton Rogers, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Pendleton Rogers of this city, will take place on the afternoon of May 7 at the home of her parents, 14 East Fifty-fourth street. On account of mourning arrangements for the ceremony will be simple, the guests being limited to relatives and a few friends. The Rev. Herbert Shipman, rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, will officiate.

Miss Poll will have Mrs. Harry Pelham Robbins as her only attendant, and John Shilto Rogers will be his brother's best man. There will be no ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Oakley Rhineland will give a dinner at their home on Thursday for Miss Poll and her fiancé.

Another wedding on the afternoon of May 7 will be that of Miss Caro Quattley Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Brown, and Franklin S. Richardson, son of Samuel W. Richardson of this city, at the home of her parents, 154 East Seventy-ninth street.

Miss Brown has chosen Mrs. George W. Carpenter as her matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Angelica Schuyler Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Ursula Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Brown, who is not related to the bride. Sinclair Richardson will be his brother's best man.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Hyldagard Jurgensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jurgensen, to Montagu La Montagne, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Rene La Montagne, at the home of her parents, 9 West Eighty-first street, at noon on May 12. On account of mourning in the bridegroom's family the guests will be limited to relatives and a few intimate friends for the ceremony and wedding breakfast to follow. Miss Marguerite Jurgensen, a niece of the bride, will be her only attendant, and Rene La Montagne, a brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man. The ushers chosen are Morgan E. La Montagne and Thomas C. Dunham.

Mr. La Montagne and his bride have planned to make an extended trip abroad on their wedding tour.

There are some small dances in prospect especially for young people. Miss Ada Phillips will give one on Friday night at Sherry's for her niece, Miss Alice Gouverneur Kortright, and on the same night at the Baltusrol Golf Club there will be a subscription ball masque, under the patronage of Mrs. Henry A. Barclay, Mrs. George T. Lane, Mrs. Sidney H. Browne, Mrs. Victor Mapes, Mrs. Benjamin C. Fiske, Mrs. J. Victor Onativia, Jr., and Mrs. Frederick E. Walker. Masks will be worn until midnight.

Robert Graves gave at his country place, the Garage, Mineola, L. I., last Sunday a notable entertainment for some of his friends from New York and his neighbors on Long Island. The house is of Spanish colonial architecture with two wings either side of the garage, which houses Mr. Graves's famous racing cars. The floor of the garage is excellent for dancing and on Sunday Mr. Graves's guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle, M. Maurice and Miss Florence Walton and Al Johnson of the Winter Garden. They danced and sang to the characteristic music of Europe and a band of colored players.

There were sixty for luncheon and afterward 100 came for the dancing. Among them were Mrs. Alexander Brown of Baltimore, Mrs. James P. Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Gary, Mr. and Mrs. James Speyer, Dr. and Mrs. Preston P. Satterwhite, W. Rhineland Stewart, Jr., Mrs. Frederic Neilson, Mrs. M. Lawrence Keene, Mrs. Adolf Lundenberg, Jay Coogan, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Corland Penfold, Mrs. James B. Eustis, Justice and Mrs. James W. Gerard, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carroll, Mrs. William H. Sands, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Ochs, Count Albert de Montglat, Mrs. William G. Rosellier, T. Sanford Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. William Eliott, Mrs. Lloyd Bowers and Prince Jean Sapiha.

Mrs. Frederic Edey has given the use of her home at 10 West Fifty-sixth street for a subscription dance on Thursday night for the benefit of the Roloffs Jany Fresh Air Home for Boys at Tivoli, N. Y. The proceeds of the dance will be devoted to the work of the home which gives at the house of Mrs. John Henry Hammond, 9 East Ninety-first street, tomorrow afternoon there will be given a concert for the benefit of the Art Workers Club for Women, which is at 224 West Fifty-eighth street. An interesting programme has been prepared by Mrs. Henry Ray Dennis, better known as Miss Lilla Grosz, Ernest Schelling, pianist, and Francis Rogers, baritone, all of whom have given their services. Tickets at $5 each may be obtained at the house-to-morrow.

Among the many patronesses are Mrs. Henry Whitney Munroe, the Misses Gerry, Mrs. Cornelius C. Cuyler, Mrs. J. Russell Soley, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. Edward S. Harkness, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Walter E. Maynard, Mrs. Mrs. M. E. Webb, 14 East Fifty-eighth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze will go to Delbarton, their country place in Morristown, N. J., late next month to pass the summer. Mrs. Kountze is recovering from an accident in Newport last summer which resulted in a broken hip. She was to attend the opera for the first time this season on Monday night.

Mrs. Charles W. Clinton and her daughter, Miss Margery Hamilton Clinton, have returned from Paris, where they passed the winter, and will be for some months at Ballinacree, their villa in Tuxedo.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele and the Misses Steele have returned from Pasadena, Cal., and are at 11 East Sixty-second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish will go to their country place in Garrison, N. Y., next month, where they will remain until spore children several weeks vacation upstate during the summer months.

Miss Ursula Wolcott Brown
PHOTO BY ROCHLITA

Several debutantes form the league that assists in this charity. Miss Pauline Clarkson is president and the other officers are Miss Julia Edey, Miss Helene Underwood and Miss Margaret Overton.

Young people of society are interested in a new series of spring dances known as the Monday Dances, which will be given in Delmonico's ballroom on April 14 and 25. The organizers of the dances are the Misses Vera Van Buren, Katharine Moore, Eulalia Garrison and Grovone Converse, W. Travers Jerome, Jr., Donald Carr, Albert Hopkins and James Vail Converse.

Probably the last of the important entertainments for charitable purposes will be held at the Hotel Astor on Tuesday night for the benefit of St. Mark's Hospital, a non-sectarian institution in Second avenue. An interesting and amusing programme has been prepared by amateurs of society under the guidance of Miss Anna Constable, who is an adept in devising novelties, and their dances and other stunts will be performed on a stage to be erected in the middle of the ballroom, around which will be placed tables for the serving of refreshments while the show is in progress. Other spectators will be able to watch from the two rows of boxes. There has already been a most encouraging sale of tickets.

Miss Elizabeth Burchenal has arranged a series of Russian, Swedish, Danish and Irish folk dances and there will be some Cuban dances under the direction of Louis Chalf. Some of those who will take part in the folk dances are Mrs. Harry Whitney McVicker, Mrs. Archibald M. Brown, Miss Juliana Cutting, Miss Ruth Burchenal and several of the debutantes of the winter.

There will be on sale confetti and confectionery by the Misses Eleanor Borgstrom, Helen R. Smith, Gladys Smallwood, Rosamond Tomkin, Caroline Draper, Dorothy Everett, Ellen Laflin, Dorothy Renard, Grovone Converse and Ethel Parks, and Messrs. Charles Strang, James A. Watson, Leonard Hubbard, John L. Renard, James Vail Converse and George Newton Miller.

Joseph Howland Hunt has been named chairman of the floor committee, who will be in charge of the general dancing to follow, and his aids will include Matthew Bolles, Langdon Marvin, Chandler Davis, Harry W. Hayward, A. D. Rogers Sullivan, Hugh Tallant, Frank R. Oulbricht, Arthur Jackson, Hamilton Durand, Richard M. Hunt, James P. Lee, Albert Hopkins, Guy Carleton, George K. B. Wade, A. Rene Mason, William B. Anderson, Arthur W. Francis, Adams Batchelder and Ambrose Henry.

When the ballroom floor is cleared there will be an exhibition of modern dances by some of the best known amateurs of society, who have been busily engaged during the winter in learning all sorts of new steps, and Ellingham Pinto will give an effective dance. To give the list of patronesses would require many pages of the Social Register. Those who desire to secure tables and boxes can do so by communicating with

Walter B. James, Mrs. Francis Rogers, Mrs. W. B. Osgood Field, Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, Mrs. Charles H. Ditson and Mrs. Reginald de Koven.

Several of this season's debutantes and other young women of society will act as ushers and programme sellers at the annual entertainment under the auspices of Miss Steno's School Society in the Aerial Theatre on April 16 and 17 for the benefit of its class for tuberculous crippled children. Among those who will assist are Mrs. Carl L. Victor, Mrs. Witherbee Black, Mrs. Douglas L. Elinman and the Misses Elizabeth Salim, Pauline Clarkson, Julia Edey, Margaret Overton, Edith Cook, Marjorie Cleveland, Vivia Fisher, Marjorie Dodd and Mary Brooks.

A playlet called "Shades" will be given on the afternoon of April 16, and among those taking part are the Misses Dorothea Darlington, Jeannette Flagg, Helen Rich and Priscilla Flagg. There will be also a pastoral ballet, and for the evening performance the play "Without a Flaw," which is a parody on "Within the Law" and which was performed recently by members of the Society of Beaux Arts Architects, will be given by the original cast.

Those taking part in the pastoral dances will include Mrs. S. Himmam Bird, Mrs. H. Benjamin Clark, Mrs. Robert B. Bowler and the Misses Jeannette and Dorothy Flagg, Greta Hostetter, Margery Shannon, Isabel Foote, Margaret Trevor, Gertrude Hill, Harriette McAlpin, Helen Eggleston, Dorothy Taylor, Violet Proctor, Marguerite Kennedy, Mary Kane, Caramai Carroll and Mary Buchanan.

Miss Helen Underwood is attending to some of the details of the entertainment and Mrs. Francis Le B. Robbins is receiving applications for tickets at $5 each at 2 West Fifty-third street.

The first spring run of the Motor Car Touring Society will be on April 19, when the members of this society and their friends will take a run to the Piping Rock Club, where luncheon will be served by Albert E. Gallatin is the president, Percy R. Pyne, 2d, vice-president, and Orme Wilson, Jr., secretary of the society. Among the members are Francis L. V. Hopkin, Malcolm Douglas Sloane, Hermandelrichs R. Thornton Wilson, Vincent Astor, Harold S. Vanderbilt, Corland Field Bishop, W. B. Osgood Field, William W. Hoffman, Buell Hollister, McKim Hollins, Marshall R. Kernechan, Newbold Morris, Ogden Mills Reid, Oliver Iseln and Robert Goelet. One of the most successful entertainments of the winter was the dinner dance at Sherry's given by the members of this society.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Cummoek will pass the summer in Seabright, N. J., where they have been for several seasons. Next winter Mrs. Cummoek will introduce to society her daughter, Miss Mary Cutting Cummoek.

Countess Leary will give later this month at her home, 1332 Fifth avenue, a dance for young people which was postponed from last Thursday. Her guests will include those who assisted at a flower fête given recently at the Plaza.

Tuesday, February 24. Some of the same patronesses will serve again next season. Preparations are being made by the Eclectic Club, Miss Florence Guernsey, president, for the card party and dance to be given by the club on April 11 at the Waldorf-Astoria for the benefit of its philanthropic fund. Mrs. Henry L. Dyer is chairman of the committee in charge and assisting her are Mrs. Albert C. Bage, Mrs. Lionel Endin, Mrs. Arthur Elliot Fish, Miss Sarah E. Fox, Mrs. Albert Glesson, Mrs. Leonard L. Hill, Mrs. William Douglas May, Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. John C. Stratton, Miss Eva Smith, Mrs. Judson G. Wells and Mrs. Andrew J. White.

William Jerome Toomey heads the floor committee, which also includes Kenneth Anderson, Frederick A. Bage, Ralph Bage, Dr. Matthew L. Carr, Kirby Gratton, Clarence A. Rode, Charles Roeser, Victor Stockwell, Frank Silo and Dr. Fielding Thacher.

The regular meeting of the club was held on Wednesday in the Waldorf-Astoria. The subject of the day, "The Spirit of Unrest," was presented by Mrs. Norman Kergood. Mrs. Frederick Lee gave a talk on the same subject. Universal topics were taken up by Mrs. Richard H. Stearns, the chairman.

The musical programme was in charge of Mrs. Carrie Martin Cowtan, soprano, who took part with Donald Chalmers, tenor. The programme was followed by luncheon and among the guests of honor were Mrs. Christopher May, president of the Theatre Club, Mrs. Edward W. Hooke, president of the International Pure Milk League, and Mrs. Austin N. Palmer, president of the Society for Political Study. Among others at the president's table were Mrs. Arthur Elliot Fish, Mrs. George O. Cole and Mrs. Albert Canfield Bage.

Miss Ida R. Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fox of 45 West Ninety-first street, will be one of this week's brides. Her marriage to Max Landay will take place on Tuesday at the St. Regis. The Rev. Dr. De Sola Mendes will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception and dinner.

Miss Fox, who will be given away by her father, will have the bridegroom's sister, Miss Rebecca Landay, for her maid of honor, and Miss Beatrice Friedman and Miss Beatrice Kamler will be her bridesmaids.

Maurice Landay will be his brother's best man and the ushers will be Herbert B. Fox, Edwin Schloss, Benjamin Landay and Mr. Steiner.

Another wedding to take place in the St. Regis is that of Miss Josephine Dick Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Wise of 215 Central Park West, to Gustav Frank. It will be celebrated on April 17.

Miss Wise will be attended by Miss Viola Sellen as maid of honor and her sister Miss Fanett Hein will be her flower girl. Samuel Frank will be his brother's best man and Leon Undergarten, Charles Hein, Harry Hein, Leo Schwartz, Walter Ernst and Frederick Gutenstein will serve as ushers.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception and breakfast.

One of the brides of the week will be Miss Myra Eulalie Semmes Ranlett, a granddaughter of Judge Thomas J. Semmes of New Orleans and a cousin of Admiral Raphael Semmes of civil war fame. Her marriage to Carroll Peden Curtis will take place on Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Ranlett, 353 West Eighty-fifth street. Miss Ranlett will have her sister, Miss Cora Ranlett, for her only attendant, and William H. Curtis will be his brother's best man.

In the Church of the Messiah, Park avenue

and Thirty-fourth street, on April 17, Miss Edith Linton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Linton, will be married to Richard Dutcher. Miss Linton will have Mrs. Ralph Woodland Owen of Madison, Wis., one of her classmates at Vassar, for her matron of honor, and Miss Dorothy Stockham, her niece, for her maid of honor. Mr. Otto S. Carroll, brother-in-law of Mr. Dutcher, will be best man, and James Carleton of Elmhurst, L. I., George E. Green of Danbury, Conn., and Warren C. Cunningham and David Hatfield Clark of New York, all classmates at Princeton, will serve as ushers.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Wanda G. Michaels, daughter of Mrs. E. Martin Michaels of East Orange, N. J., to John Pierrepont Constable, son of the late James Constable, a naval architect of this city. The wedding will take place on Wednesday afternoon, April 16, in the church of Zion and St. Timothy, West Fifty-seventh street. The ceremony will be performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Charles F. Walkley, rector of Grace Church, Orange, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Lightship, and will be followed by a reception at the Plaza.

Miss Michaels will be attended by Miss Agnes Tyler of Orange, N. J., as maid of honor, and Miss Sarah Howells of Morristown, N. J., and Eugene Livingston Deane, Jr., of Riverdale, N. Y., as flower girl and page.

Charles Edison of West Orange will be the best man and William Constable, John White, Bruce Brownlee and R. E. Kneeland will be the ushers.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Ethel Selby, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Brook Selby of Newark, N. J., to George John Schreiner of this city will take place on Wednesday, April 16, in the St. Regis.

Mrs. William Carroll Wilson will be her sister's matron of honor and her other attendants will be Mrs. Edwin Selby, her sister-in-law, and Mrs. Frederick E. Straub. John Herbert Schreiner will be best man for his cousin and the ushers will be William Carroll Wilson, Frederick E. Straub, J. Edgar Cook and Carl S. Pye.

From Buffalo comes the announcement of the engagement of Alexander, son of Alexander, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Alexander of that city, to Harry M. Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Simon of 322 West 166th street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mayer of 310 West Ninety-ninth street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence E. Mayer, to Milton E. Joseph. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Frances Cridge Bellman and Charles Newton Correll, whose engagement was announced last week, will be married this month at Atlantic City. Mrs. Bellman is a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Cridge of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Steiner of 302 Central Park West will give a reception at their home on April 20 for their daughter, Miss Mildred Steiner, and Wido Larson Steinfeld, whose engagement was recently announced.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dauenhauser of 63 West Sixty-ninth street last week announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss May Dauenhauser, to Frederick H. Knoke. No date has been set for the wedding.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. John P. Scanlon of Fordham of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Theresa Scanlon, to John C. Daly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckley Hungerford Stearns, who were married on Thursday at the home of the bride at Irvington on the Hudson, sailed yesterday for a two month trip abroad. Mrs. Stearns was Miss Edith King, daughter of the late Thomas King. She was attended at her marriage by her sister, Miss Florence King, and Charles Hoyt Stearns was his brother's best man. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Stearns will make their home in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Kane Miller of 20 West 126th street have made formal announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Salletta Pressinger Miller, to John W. Stewart of Düsseldorf, Germany. No date has been set for the wedding.

Another recent engagement is that of Miss Lucie A. Dolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dolan of Hamilton terrace, to George Brunnequell. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

There was a large attendance at the last of the series of the Neighborhood Dances on Friday night at the Hotel Gotham. There was general dancing throughout the evening and at midnight supper was served. The patronesses for the series included Mrs. James B. Curtis, Mrs. Lamon Grant, Mrs. George C. Schaefer and Mrs. John E. Weeks.

For the benefit of those who suffered from the recent floods in the middle West the Texas Club of New York, Mrs. Clara Driscoll, sever, president, will give a bridge party at the Plaza on the afternoon of April 11. The management of the hotel has given the use of the ballroom for the occasion. Tickets are $1.25 and can be obtained from the chairman of the committee, Mrs. John Frederick Thomas, 312 Manhattan avenue.

The committee also includes Mrs. A. F. Hancock, Mrs. W. Borden Carter, Mrs. William M. Hazleton, Mrs. George Kirby Smith, Mrs. Frank D. Glover, Mrs. John R. Potts, Mrs. J. C. Parks, Mrs. William Durham House and Mrs. Bernard Wall.

For her last at home this season Mrs. P. B. Eyer of 171 West Ninety-fifth street will be married to Richard Dutcher.

Preparations are being made by the Eclectic Club, Miss Florence Guernsey, president, for the card party and dance to be given by the club on April 11 at the Waldorf-Astoria for the benefit of its philanthropic fund. Mrs. Henry L. Dyer is chairman of the committee in charge and assisting her are Mrs. Albert C. Bage, Mrs. Lionel Endin, Mrs. Arthur Elliot Fish, Miss Sarah E. Fox, Mrs. Albert Glesson, Mrs. Leonard L. Hill, Mrs. William Douglas May, Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. John C. Stratton, Miss Eva Smith, Mrs. Judson G. Wells and Mrs. Andrew J. White.

William Jerome Toomey heads the floor committee, which also includes Kenneth Anderson, Frederick A. Bage, Ralph Bage, Dr. Matthew L. Carr, Kirby Gratton, Clarence A. Rode, Charles Roeser, Victor Stockwell, Frank Silo and Dr. Fielding Thacher.

The regular meeting of the club was held on Wednesday in the Waldorf-Astoria. The subject of the day, "The Spirit of Unrest," was presented by Mrs. Norman Kergood. Mrs. Frederick Lee gave a talk on the same subject. Universal topics were taken up by Mrs. Richard H. Stearns, the chairman.

The musical programme was in charge of Mrs. Carrie Martin Cowtan, soprano, who took part with Donald Chalmers, tenor. The programme was followed by luncheon and among the guests of honor were Mrs. Christopher May, president of the Theatre Club, Mrs. Edward W. Hooke, president of the International Pure Milk League, and Mrs. Austin N. Palmer, president of the Society for Political Study. Among others at the president's table were Mrs. Arthur Elliot Fish, Mrs. George O. Cole and Mrs. Albert Canfield Bage.

Miss Ida R. Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fox of 45 West Ninety-first street, will be one of this week's brides. Her marriage to Max Landay will take place on Tuesday at the St. Regis. The Rev. Dr. De Sola Mendes will perform the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception and dinner.

Miss Fox, who will be given away by her father, will have the bridegroom's sister, Miss Rebecca Landay, for her maid of honor, and Miss Beatrice Friedman and Miss Beatrice Kamler will be her bridesmaids.

Maurice Landay will be his brother's best man and the ushers will be Herbert B. Fox, Edwin Schloss, Benjamin Landay and Mr. Steiner.

Another wedding to take place in the St. Regis is that of Miss Josephine Dick Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Wise of 215 Central Park West, to Gustav Frank. It will be celebrated on April 17.

Miss Wise will be attended by Miss Viola Sellen as maid of honor and her sister Miss Fanett Hein will be her flower girl. Samuel Frank will be his brother's best man and Leon Undergarten, Charles Hein, Harry Hein, Leo Schwartz, Walter Ernst and Frederick Gutenstein will serve as ushers.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception and breakfast.

One of the brides of the week will be Miss Myra Eulalie Semmes Ranlett, a granddaughter of Judge Thomas J. Semmes of New Orleans and a cousin of Admiral Raphael Semmes of civil war fame. Her marriage to Carroll Peden Curtis will take place on Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Ranlett, 353 West Eighty-fifth street. Miss Ranlett will have her sister, Miss Cora Ranlett, for her only attendant, and William H. Curtis will be his brother's best man.

In the Church of the Messiah, Park avenue

and Thirty-fourth street, on April 17, Miss Edith Linton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Linton, will be married to Richard Dutcher. Miss Linton will have Mrs. Ralph Woodland Owen of Madison, Wis., one of her classmates at Vassar, for her matron of honor, and Miss Dorothy Stockham, her niece, for her maid of honor. Mr. Otto S. Carroll, brother-in-law of Mr. Dutcher, will be best man, and James Carleton of Elmhurst, L. I., George E. Green of Danbury, Conn., and Warren C. Cunningham and David Hatfield Clark of New York, all classmates at Princeton, will serve as ushers.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Wanda G. Michaels, daughter of Mrs. E. Martin Michaels of East Orange, N. J., to John Pierrepont Constable, son of the late James Constable, a naval architect of this city. The wedding will take place on Wednesday afternoon, April 16, in the church of Zion and St. Timothy, West Fifty-seventh street. The ceremony will be performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Charles F. Walkley, rector of Grace Church, Orange, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Lightship, and will be followed by a reception at the Plaza.

Miss Michaels will be attended by Miss Agnes Tyler of Orange, N. J., as maid of honor, and Miss Sarah Howells of Morristown, N. J., and Eugene Livingston Deane, Jr., of Riverdale, N. Y., as flower girl and page.

Charles Edison of West Orange will be the best man and William Constable, John White, Bruce Brownlee and R. E. Kneeland will be the ushers.

The wedding of Miss Mabel Ethel Selby, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Brook Selby of Newark, N. J., to George John Schreiner of this city will take place on Wednesday, April 16, in the St. Regis.

Mrs. William Carroll Wilson will be her sister's matron of honor and her other attendants will be Mrs. Edwin Selby, her sister-in-law, and Mrs. Frederick E. Straub. John Herbert Schreiner will be best man for his cousin and the ushers will be William Carroll Wilson, Frederick E. Straub, J. Edgar Cook and Carl S. Pye.

From Buffalo comes the announcement of the engagement of Alexander, son of Alexander, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Alexander of that city, to Harry M. Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Simon of 322 West 166th street. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mayer of 310 West Ninety-ninth street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Florence E. Mayer, to Milton E. Joseph. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Frances Cridge Bellman and Charles Newton Correll, whose engagement was announced last week, will be married this month at Atlantic City. Mrs. Bellman is a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Cridge of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Steiner of 302 Central Park West will give a reception at their home on April 20 for their daughter, Miss Mildred Steiner, and Wido Larson Steinfeld, whose engagement was recently announced.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dauenhauser of 63 West Sixty-ninth street last week announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss May Dauenhauser, to Frederick H. Knoke. No date has been set for the wedding.

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. John P. Scanlon of Fordham of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Theresa Scanlon, to John C. Daly of this city.

Mr